

COMPANY HISTORY

NATIONWIDE INDUSTRIES™

Nationwide Industries founded in Tampa, FL focusing on providing window, door and patio parts to OEMs, distributors, and installers

Several members of current management team (Sales, Operations and Engineering Leadership) join Nationwide Industries

Fence First strategy launches redirecting Nationwide growth focus from doors and windows to fence and gate specialty hardware for the professional fence industry

Q2 – Argosy sells Nationwide Industries to Harbour Group Private Equity

Q3 – Nationwide Industries purchases their strongest, broad line competitor in the pro Fence and Gate hardware market segment, Weldon Industries, based in Tampa, FL and Salt Lake City, UT

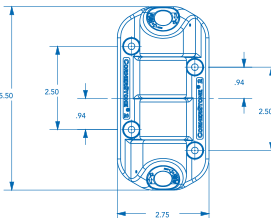

Q1 – Exited legacy Weldon Salt Lake City DC and opened operations in new 22,000+ square foot Salt Lake City based DC

Q2 – Consolidated multiple Carson City buildings into new state of the art 46,000+ square foot manufacturing plant and DC in Carson City, NV

Acquisition of Nationwide Industries by publicly traded holding company, P&F Industries, (NASDAQ:PFIN)

Nationwide Industries kicks off focus on engineering, R&D and new product development

Q1 - P&F sells Nationwide Industries to Argosy Private Equity, accelerating growth strategy by partnering with Argosy resources to drive both organic and inorganic opportunities

Q3 – Nationwide Industries expands product portfolio with the acquisition of Carson City, NV based manufacturer and distributor of cable railing components and solutions, the Cable Connection (Ultra-Tec)

Q1 - Nationwide Industries further expands their cable railing portfolio with the acquisition of full cable railing system provider, Rail FX, based in Tacoma, WA providing an extensive product offering into the Lumberyard channel

Summer – Exited legacy Nationwide Industries Tampa DC and legacy Weldon Industries Tampa DC, consolidating into new 117,000+ square foot Tampa based Headquarters and DC

Q1 - Nationwide Industries expands product portfolio into the perimeter security market with the acquisition of mechanical lock, gate closer and panic hardware distributor, Lockey, based in Mount Pleasant, MI

Q1 – Exited RailFX Tacoma facility and relocated all activities to our existing manufacturing site in Carson City, NV

Q2 – Exited Lockey Mount Pleasant DC and relocated all picking, packing and shipping operations to existing Nationwide DC in Tampa, FL